BOOK SYNOPSIS

Following the best-selling Everybodys Fool, a new collection of short fiction that demonstrates that Richard Russo--winner of the Pulitzer Prize for Empire Falls--is also a master of this genre. Russos characters in these four expansive stories bear little similarity to the blue-collar citizens were familiar with from many of his novels. In "Horseman," a professor confronts a young plagiarist as well as her own weaknesses as the Thanksgiving holiday looms closer and closer: "And after that, who knew?" In "Intervention," a realtor facing an ominous medical prognosis finds himself in his fathers shadow while he presses forward--or not. In "Voice," a semiretired academic is conned by his increasingly estranged brother into coming along on a group tour of the Venice Biennale, fleeing a mortifying incident with a traumatized student back in Massachusetts but encountering further complications in the maze of Venice. And in "Milton and Marcus," a lapsed novelist struggles with his wifes illness and tries to rekindle his screenwriting career, only to be stymied by the pratfalls of that trade when hes called to an aging, iconic stars mountaintop retreat in Wyoming. From the Hardcover edition.
